

JIM CADDEN

W302 5780 Trail Avenue, Sechelt, BC V0N 3A6

Tel. 250 832-9729

Email: jecadden@hotmail.com

HEALTH AND SAFETY – FOREST SECTOR

Self-driven, results oriented Health and Safety Professional with excellent working knowledge and specialized training in the Forest Sector. A graduate of Forest Technology, supplemented with a Provincial Instructors Diploma and specialized Certificates in Occupational Health and Safety, establishes the foundation and growth in professional development of 31 years in the Forest/ Safety industry.

A skilled evaluator of health and safety practices and procedures of Woodlands operations through hands on experience and regulatory compliance. Extensive background in incident investigation, hazard recognition, risk assessment, compliance and enforcement, safety program evaluation, curriculum development and training.

Reputation for innovation and creativity in the Prevention field and acknowledged for the professionalism, integrity and fairness with clients. Well developed interpersonal skills and respects the value that each employee contributes at all levels of an organization.

SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATIONS

Forest Sector:

- Plan, conduct and supervise all phases of Forest Management & Development
- Tenure Management of Forest Licenses, Small Business Sales and private timber.
- Direct supervision of company and contractor workforce in all phases of water and woods operations including dump and towing, barging, r/w logging, road construction, bridge building, harvesting, road and logging camp maintenance.
- Qualified Supervisor/Trainer (BC Faller Certification Program), Certified Faller and experienced Woods Supervisor.

Health and Safety:

- Perform the duties of an Occupational Safety Officer including compliance and enforcement, investigations, H&S Program evaluations, consultation and education.
- Responsible for the Health and Safety Program for Woodlands Operations including contractor and company crews.
- Extensive training and application of regulatory requirements, codes and standards.
- Safety project management through completion.