MIKE HENNIGAN is a member of the Board of Directors of the BC Forest Safety Council, representing the Western Fallers Association.

Mike's 32-year career on the Queen Charlotte Islands has involved work as a faller, supervisor and trainer for various companies. He has also logged his own BC Timber Sales licences.

Mike helped pioneer variable retention logging in B.C. and provided consulting services when Timfor Forest Products obtained a Forest Stewardship Council certification.

In 1992, he worked with the Workers' Compensation Board of B.C. on development of a faller training curriculum.

Among other specialties, Mike is qualified as a faller supervisor, forestry supervisor, forest assessor and has numerous commercial diving certificates for his underwater timber salvage activities.

He is a past member of the Queen Charlotte Water and Sewer Commission and a past chair of the Queen Charlotte/Skidegate Landing Advisory Planning Commission.
