PETER LINEEN, CRSP, is Chief Executive Officer of the BC Forest Safety Council.

Growing up on Vancouver Island, Peter developed a passion for safety and injury prevention while working for local forest products operations and later with CN Rail across Western Canada.

He was Director of Environment, Health and Safety at Western Forest Products since 2005, and previously was Health and Safety Manager for Weyerhaeuser's Canadian softwood lumber business. This followed extensive experience in Alberta's oil and gas and telecommunications sectors.

Peter was a Governor and Past Chair of the Canadian Registered Safety Professionals Board and ex-member on the Board of the BC SAFER Council. As well, he is co-author of Health, Safety and Environmental Management Systems Auditing, a textbook published by LexisNexis.

Peter graduated from BCIT's occupational health and safety program in 1988 and resides in Duncan.
