

KUDOS

Forestry supply companies Stihl Canada and Husqvarna donated a faller safety package and a chain saw which were awarded to two of the 3,300 fallers in B.C. who were asked to participate in a survey on attitudes toward safety and the BC Forest Council faller certification program.

Kwantlen University College received four awards for its Consider. Compare. Choose student recruitment CD-ROM and online course calendar. Kwantlen won Paragon Gold awards for Best Electronic Viewbook and Best Electronic Class Schedule/Catalog from the U.S.-based National Council for Marketing and Public Relations, and Prix D'Excellence Gold awards for Best Audio, Video or Multimedia Presentation and Best Department or Program Site on the World Wide Web from the Canadian Council for Advancement of Education.

PCL Constructors Westcoast donated $500,000 to BCIT. The money will benefit construction trades training students by funding not only student achievement awards but also additional construction trades training at a time when industry demand for workers is at an all-time high.

Abbotsford's Phantom Screens has chosen World Vision Canada as its corporate charity of choice. As part of this commitment, the company will sponsor 10 children, a donation of

From left, Bill Bolton of the BC Forest Safety Council's faller certification program, Scott Clarke of Stihl Canada, Wade Smith of Husqvarna and Tanner Elton of the BC Forest Safety Council.

$4,200 per year.

RBC Financial Group contributed $150,000 through the RBC Foundation toward Surrey Memorial Hospital's new emergency centre, scheduled to open in 2010. RBC branches throughout the Fraser Valley intend to raise an additional $300,000 through an annual golf tournament and staff activities.

The Richmond Animal Protection Society received $1,000 from Shell Canada to purchase a computer. The money was awarded through Shell's Community Service Fund which provides funds to not-for-profit organizations at which an employee, retiree or retailer volunteers.

In this year's charity golf tournament, Coast Capital Savings raised $160,000 for the VGH & UBC Hospital Foundation to support depression research.

For the sixth consecutive year, Campion Marine donated a custom-built boat, engine and trailer, valued at $30,000, to the B.C. Schizophrenia Society for a raffle to raise funds and awareness. Over the six years, the Campion Boat Raffle has generated $350,000 for the society.

Phantom Screens CEO Esther De Wolde and Dave Toycen, president and CEO of World Vision Canada.